

Tyler A&M Mothers' Club SCHOLARSHIP DINNER & SILENT AUCTION

March 27, 2018

The Scholarship Dinner and Silent Auction was held at Hollytree Country Club with 76 in attendance.

Rebecca Mohr, President, welcomed everybody with a "Howdy" and thanked everyone for their support. The list of sponsors for the event is attached. John Childs '53, former Yell Leader, led everyone in two Aggie yells. Rebecca encouraged everyone to continue to bid on the auction items until the auction closes. She hopes that this is the first annual event of this kind.

The Silent Auction had forty-two items. The complete list of auction items and list of donors are attached.

After David Mohr said a prayer, everyone enjoyed a buffet Italian dinner.

When the auction closed, Rebecca noted that we also have an Envelope Fundraiser available for those who want to make an additional contribution.

Joni Farmer introduced our speaker, Congressman Louis Gohmert '75. Louie shared how his days in the Corps of Cadets prepared him for life. He said that it is important to focus on the destination and not on each footstep. After he finished with "God bless Texas A&M", John Childs led everyone in a "Louie" yell.

Rebecca recognized the 2017 Graduates with family present:

Cassidy Doke Sarah Good Andrew Kazlow Zachary Lawson Kevin Lewis Cassidy Milam Joshua Noble Katherine Weathers

Rebecca shared what each graduate is doing now. Cassidy Doke and Kevin Lewis were in attendance and were given a ring crest paperweight. The others were represented by their moms who accepted their gifts. Pictures were taken with Louie Gohmert.

Other 2017 Graduates who were not represented: Reed Bedard, Cheyenne Gideon, Morgan Hadsall, Kelsey Lea, and Colby Porter. Their gifts will be delivered at a later time.

Rebecca recognized Kathy Gohmert, wife of Congressman Gohmert, as a new Honorary Member of our club. "Congressman Gohmert, TAMU class of 1975, and Kathy live in Tyler and have actively supported Tyler A&M Mothers' Club for many years. Mr. Gohmert has been willing to speak at several functions, waiving an honorarium, which resulted in attracting a larger attendance at our events." See the attached proclamation.

Rebecca announced that the auction made over $3,000! Rebecca noted that we would be giving out thirty scholarships this year. "This year's recipients are intelligent. They are involved. They are passionate. And, they LOVE Texas A&M! As you know, all funds raised here tonight go toward helping these recipients pursue their dream of getting an education from Texas A&M through our Aggie Mom Scholarships. We were amazed by the thoughts these students shared in their application essay. Listen to what a few said: “To me, my education at Texas A&M has meant learning the attributes of being a true Aggie, and I will use what I have learned to go out and make a positive impact on my community and the world.” Or this one, “Having an organization like BUILD is one of the many reasons why Texas A&M has been able to help me grow so much in such a short time. Not only has being at A&M helped me see what I want to do with my life, but also it has helped me to do just that as a current student. I would never have been able to impact so many lives if it wasn’t for A&M’s passion for students and passion for pushing them to help others.” Or what about this? “The support of a mother is by far the most valuable resource in my life. It is ceaseless and unconditional. The Aggie Moms have made the worst finals weeks enjoyable with great snacks and fun surprises and they have helped me tremendously in financing my education. It is the support from home that encourages me every single day.” Friends - This is why we do what we do - Thank you for helping us.”

Rebecca thanked the committee that planned tonight’s event with her:

Joni Farmer Kim Costanza Paula Kimmey Renee Wright Christi Nelson Martha Jane Wallace
LeAnn Cargile

Attendees sang the Aggie War Hymn to end the event.

(Minutes by Jessica Knowles, Recording Secretary.)
