Message from the President

Howdy,

I hope November finds everyone ready to welcome her Aggie home and preparing to enjoy the holidays with friends and family. As Aggie moms, we are still traveling through waters where no Aggie mom has gone before. We have students coming home to take final exams; students that did not have a traditional college semester. While some of our students' life experiences may not be what we would expect, our skills as moms, Aggie Moms to be exact, will never waiver, especially when we have this sisterhood to draw strength from when we need it. Be sure to shine your lights ladies and be the guides for one another as we enter this holiday season,

Much love,

Tracye Martin

President, Tyler Aggie Moms, 2020-2021
